

US DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR ☆ NATIONAL BUSINESS CENTER
DOI UNIVERSITY/DIVISION OF CULTURAL RESOURCES AND EVENTS

GOVERNMENT WIDE FORUMS 2006

CAREER ☆ BALANCE ☆ DIVERSITY
Helping You Balance Your Life and Work

US DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR ★ NATIONAL BUSINESS CENTER DOI UNIVERSITY/DIVISION OF CULTURAL RESOURCES AND EVENTS

GOVERNMENT WIDE FORUMS 2006

Carnegie Institution ★ Elihu Root Auditorium ★ 1530 P Street, NW ★ Washington, DC
Registration 9:00-9:30 AM ★ Speaker Forum 9:30-11:00 AM ★ Book Signing 11:00-11:30 AM

Wednesday, February 8

A Hope in the Unseen An American Odyssey from the Inner City to the Ivy League

by Ron Suskind

Ron Suskind won the Pulitzer Prize for his stories in the Wall Street Journal on Cedric Jennings, a talented African American teenager struggling to succeed in one of the worst public schools in DC. This book follows Jennings from high school to Brown University and delivers a compelling story of the struggles of inner-city life in modern America.

Ron Suskind is a graduate of the University of Virginia and Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism. He currently writes for various national magazines, including the New York Times Magazine. Suskind and his family live in Washington, DC.

Tuesday, September 12

My Soul Looks Back in Wonder Voices of the Civil Rights Experience

by Juan Williams

My Soul Looks Back in Wonder documents the ongoing role of the Civil Rights Movement as an agent of personal and political change in American society. Through gripping stories, we are reminded of the great historical significance of this important social movement.

Juan Williams is the Senior Correspondent for National Public Radio and a political analyst for TV's Fox News. He graduated from Haverford College with a B.A. in philosophy and currently sits on several boards including the Washington Journalism Center and the New York Civil Rights Coalition.

Tuesday, March 14

Leadership The Journey Inward

by Delorese Ambrose, Ed.D.

Delorese Ambrose envisions the world as an inclusive "global village" where people's energies can be directed towards realization of talents and service to humanity. Her personal mission is to help people discover meaning in their work lives so they can attain more satisfying personal and organizational results. Leadership: The Journey Inward invites each one of us to tap into our inner leader to create the outcomes we want in our work and home lives.

Delorese Ambrose is the founder of Ambrose Consulting & Training. She consults with public and private organizations and served as adjunct professor of management at Carnegie Mellon University for eighteen years. She was named one of the City's Most Powerful Women by Pittsburgh Magazine in 1995.

Tuesday, October 10

Bullies, Tyrants & Impossible People How to Beat Them Without Joining Them

by Ronald Shapiro

Bullies, tyrants and impossible people are everywhere. There is a simple and systematic way to deal with them; understand their type and why they are being difficult. This book gives you a foolproof four-point plan that enables you to be successful with all of the impossible people in your life.

Ron Shapiro is an expert negotiator, attorney & civic leader. He has been called "one of baseball's most respected agent-attorneys" by USA Today. He attended Haverford College and graduated Cum Laude from Harvard Law School in 1967. Ron's dispute resolution techniques have resolved disputes in both governmental and corporate challenges.

Wednesday, April 19
PUBLIC EVENT

Your Money and Your Man How You and Prince Charming Can Spend Well and Live Rich

by Michelle Singletary

In Michelle Singletary's second book, Your Money and Your Man, Singletary guides us on how to manage, plan, and invest our finances. She breaks this information down according to age groups and by stages of romantic relationships—what not to disclose on the first date, when to come completely clean about your financial history, how much to spend on a wedding and when to start saving for college and retirement funds.

Michelle Singletary is a syndicated columnist with the Washington Post. She graduated from the University of Maryland and received her MBA from Johns Hopkins. Michelle is also the author of Spend Well, Live Rich: How to Get What You Want with the Money You Have.

Tuesday, November 14

Winning Every Time How to Use the Skills of a Lawyer in the Trials of Your Life

by Lis Wiehl

In Winning Every Time, Lis Wiehl effectively explains how to use the skills of a lawyer in everyday situations by offering eight specific steps that are adaptable to all different kinds of advocacy. The book is designed around stories of real people who have used the eight steps as tools to handle life's challenges at work and home.

Lis Wiehl is the legal analyst for the Fox News Channel and a legal commentator for National Public Radio. She graduated from Harvard Law School and is now the founding director of New York Law School's new law and journalism program. Lis lives with her two children in New York.

You can register for these events through your agency coordinator additional details and listings are located on the back of this brochure.

www.doi.gov/training (Click on Forums and Special Projects)

CAREER ★ BALANCE ★ DIVERSITY

Helping You Balance Your Life and Work

US DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR ★ NATIONAL BUSINESS CENTER
DOI UNIVERSITY/DIVISION OF CULTURAL RESOURCES AND EVENTS

GOVERNMENT WIDE FORUMS 2006

We are pleased to announce a special forum series designed to help government employees balance career, family and diversity in the work place. Each event in the series will feature an interactive workshop with the author of a featured book, a copy of the book, a book signing, and light refreshments. The series has been created in partnership with Politics and Prose Bookstore in Washington, DC. Register for these events through your agency coordinator.

Wednesday, February 8
A Hope in the Unseen
Ron Suskind

Tuesday, March 14
Leadership
Delorese Ambrose, Ed.D.

Wednesday, April 19 PUBLIC EVENT
Your Money and Your Man
Michelle Singletary

Tuesday, September 12
My Soul Looks Back in Wonder
Juan Williams

Tuesday, October 10
Bullies, Tyrants & Impossible People
Ronald Shapiro

Tuesday, November 14
Winning Every Time
Lis Wiehl

LOCATION, TIMES & DIRECTIONS

Registration 9:00-9:30 AM ★ Speaker Forum 9:30-11:00 AM ★ Book Signing 11:00-11:30 AM

Carnegie Institution
Elihu Root Auditorium
1530 P Street, NW
Washington, DC 20005

Directions: The Carnegie Institution is located near the Dupont Circle Metro (Red Line). Take the Dupont Circle South exit from the Metro. When exiting the station, turn around and face Dupont Circle. Turn right; follow the outside of the circle, crossing Connecticut Avenue and Massachusetts Avenue. Turn right on P Street and follow for 3 blocks. Carnegie is at P Street & 16th Street. The entrance is on P Street between 16th Street & 15th Street. Follow the stairs or elevator to the auditorium on the second floor. If driving, limited paid parking is available at Whole Foods located at 1440 P Street (1.5 blocks away from Carnegie).

SPECIAL ASSISTANCE

Persons needing special assistance should contact Shari Hanscomb at 202-208-5796 or Shari_A_Hanscomb@nbc.gov. We will try to accommodate all such needs, but need to know in advance in order to make the necessary arrangements.

www.doi.gov/training (Click on Forums and Special Projects)

AGENCY COORDINATORS

US Department of the Interior

Shari Hanscomb 202-208-5796
Brenda Woods 202-208-3617

US Fish and Wildlife Service

Martha Hopkins 703-358-1995
Alice Hudson 202-208-0121

Indian Affairs

Beth Terranova 202-208-6641
Patti MacLeod 202-208-2893

US Geological Survey

Imogene Bynum 703-648-7960

Minerals Management Service

Susan Scherr 703-787-1308
Pauline Marshall 703-787-1306

National Park Service

Elaine Poole 202-354-1402
Marvin Hill 202-354-1404

Bureau of Reclamation

Sheneé Turner 202-513-0516

Office of Surface Mining

Jim Bush 202-208-2762

US Department of Commerce

Lisa Brandon Clark 202-482-2972

US Environmental Protection Agency

Pat Keitt 202-564-0553

Federal Trade Commission

José Cocoa 202-326-2876

US Department of Justice

Mary R. Jones 202-616-3619

US Department of Labor

Karen Terrell 202-693-7654

US Office of Personnel Management

Barbara Garland 202-606-4293

US Department of Veterans Affairs

Jim Pritchert 202-501-3408